Even War Is Not World's End
Savings Bonds and Savings

In a fast triple play, allow us to pass on to you a series of most interesting quotations assembled by President Marsh of Boston University, reproduced by James Truslow Adams in "Barron's," and now here set down once again. They're worth it.

Wilbeforce, 1801—"I dare not marry—the future is so unsettled."

Pitt, 1806—"There is scarcely anything around us but ruin and despair."

Lord Shaftesbury, 1848—"Nothing can save the British Empire from shipwreck."

Disraeli, 1849—"In industry, commerce, and agriculture there is no hope."

Wellington, 1852—"I thank God I shall be spared from seeing the consummation of the ruin that is gathering about us."

Yet the world did not end because over a period of half a century these gentlemen saw only ruin and hopelessness. It is not going to end now, in spite of nearly universal war, in spite of death, debt and destruction.

Man is a durable institution. His powers of survival have been sorely tested before, and he always emerged from the most gruesome ordeals, living and living as before. So he will do again.

In a time when everything seems changing, are there no things which do not change? Of course there are. The love of men and women, the steady, consoling warmth of friendship, the driving power of ambition.

The desire for the beautiful, the deed of kindness, the unselfish urge, the desire for knowledge. The aspiration to see and to serve God.

He would be a foolish optimist indeed who can look complacently on the world today that should have been so beautiful, and which men have made so ugly. But he would be not only cowardly but shortsighted who would look upon it and say, "We can never do any better."

The world to come will be what we make it and what we give our children an opportunity to make it. Our immediate task today happens to be the attainment of victory in a war which has come to us despite long and intense efforts to avoid it.

That is only the chapter in which we are now reading. The coming chapter need not be like the blotted and smudged pages of the past. It can be clean and fine. In the midst of today's troubles we must remember that, for it is only if we forget it that we prejudice its eventual realization.

The thought behind defense bonds was broader than merely to provide money for conducting the war. It was also that by channelling some of people's excess income away from the consumer markets and into savings to be spent not now but later, competition for reduced stocks of goods would be lessened, and a tendency toward inflation minimized.

Now it develops that many of the bonds are being bought with money already saved in bank accounts, or with other forms of savings. Of course that means a mere transfer from one form of savings to another, and defeats part of the purpose of the plan.

One who buys war bonds out of savings, and goes on spending all of an augmented income on consumer goods is not really contributing as much to the national welfare as one who leaves his former savings where they were, and buys bonds out of new savings brought about by spending less of his weekly or monthly income.

Make your war savings a part of your regular budget and shape the budget accordingly.

Arkansas manufacturers are rushing orders on uniforms of all kinds as young women put aside frills and furbelows in favor of utilitarian garments of soldier blue.

Officially approved uniforms of the OCD are distributed through the nation's retail stores. Red Cross and AWVS members must order their uniforms through their local chapters.

One thing the new civilian uniforms have in common—all are blue. Prices range from $3.50 for the OCD canteen worker's uniform to $40 for the Red Cross Motor Corps uniform. These are for ready-made outfits. Custom-made uniforms run as high as $135.

We may soon be a nation of women in uniform—and from where we sit, the uniforms look both practical and becoming.

Women of America Are Signing Up With Red Cross

By DOROTHY ROE

AP Fashion Editor

Sister Susie, who used to sew skirts for soldiers back in the first World War is stepping out in her own uniform today, along with Brother Bill.

From Park Avenue to Main Street Uncle Sam's nieces are enlisting with the American Red Cross, the Office of Civilian Defense and the American Women's Voluntary Service, offering their time and their talents to aid their country's defense.

Naval Supply Bill to House

Maritime Shipbuilding Plan Amounts to 2 Billions

WASHINGTON—(P)—A $2,096,138,875 supply bill for independent agencies of the government in the next fiscal year carrying $984,410,800 for the shipbuilding program of the Maritime Commission went to the house Thursday from its appropriation committee.

The total was about $5 million dollars less than President Roosevelt's budget recommendation but the committee said that subsequent supplemental funds probably would offset that apparent reduction.

State Oil Output Raised 800 Barrels

WASHINGTON—(P)—Interior Secretary Ikes, petroleum coordinator, in setting the nation's production for February at 4,011,800 barrels a day, recommended a daily production of 74,500 barrels for Arkansas oil an increase of 800 barrels over January's production.

Louis J. Taber, recently created Master of the National Grange, once made eighteen 12-minute addresses in one day.

$5,500 Grant to Hope Schools by Government

Money to Be Used for Maintenance, Operation of District 1-A

The Federal Works Administration announced late Wednesday president's approval of additional defense public works projects necessary to the war effort. The approved projects included a grant of $5,500 to the Hope School district 1-A for maintenance and operation.

The Star was notified of the grant late Wednesday afternoon in a telegram from Congressman Oren Harris. The local school district has an application in for funds to construct a new building here. For maintenance and operation of this building the district asked a several thousand dollar grant. To date the application for the new projects apparently have not been approved.

Congressman Harris' telegram follows:

"Senator Lloyd Spencer and I are glad to advise you that the President has approved an allotment of $5,500 for the maintenance of Hope School District. We are notifying Miss Beryl Henry, as sponsor, to negotiate the payment with Administrator of Federal Works Agency, Oren Harris, M. C."

Congressman Harris announced previously this week that the Blevins School District had received a similar grant of $1,250 for its system, bringing to two the number of Hempstead schools receiving grants.

Top-Notch Cage Game Thursday

Ouachita Tigers to Play Group of Hope All-Stars

ARKADELPHIA—Hope basketball fans will have an opportunity to see last year's state collegiate champions in action Thursday night when the Ouachita College quintet meets the Patmos All-Stars in a game in the Hope High school gymnasium.

Scheduled to start the game for Ouachita is the same team which figured so prominently in state college games last year—a team which won fourteen games in a row and marched straight through the annual college tournament to claim the state title.

The starters are: Orville Roberts, Harrison, and Dene Nichols, Warren, towards; Alvin (Pop) Williams, Little Rock, center; and Johnny Furquerson, El Dorado, and sterling Williams, North Little Rock, guards.

The thought behind defense bonds was broader than merely to provide money for conducting the war. It was also that by channelling some of people's excess income away from the consumer markets and into savings to be spent not now but later, competition for reduced stocks of goods would be lessened, and a tendency toward inflation minimized.

Russian Troops Still Advance in Severe Cold

Go 12 Miles Beyond Mozhaisk; Axis Counter Attack in Libya

MOSCOW—(P)—Russian snow troops advancing on propeller driven sleds were reported late Thursday to have halted Adolf Hitler's retreating armies beyond Borodina, 12 miles west of Mozhaisk amid the bitterest cold of the Soviet winter so far.

Racing over waist deep snow the Red army forces were slashing fiercely at the flanks of the Nazi withdrawal toward Vyazma where the Germans are expected to attempt their next stand against the Russian counter offensive.

The Germans were said to be seeking cover from the Russians as well as the bitterest week of Russian winter so far.

While the Red army artillerymen blasted at the rear of the German army, retreating back from Mozhaisk, dispatches from the northern and southern wings of the 2,000 mile front told of continuing forward surges of the Russian offensive.

Southwest of Leningrad the Germans were said to have been ejected from 27 villages in a single day.

On the southwestern front, that is before Kharkov the Russians acknowledged that the foe had counter attacked in some sectors but that these thrusts were beaten back and the Red army rolled on.

CAIRO—(P)—Lashing out from El Agheila and with most of the tanks still remaining to him the Axis commander General Erwin Rommel has struck about 10 miles into British Imperial positions the Middle East command acknowledged Thursday but an informed source held that this would probably be little more than a feeler stroke.

The commentator said he would be most surprised if Rommel's move meant that the Germans and their Italian comrades had taken the initiative or that real counter offensive had started.

Aerial Offensive
LONDON—(P)—British bombers in the Mediterranean basin lashed out with a heavy aerial offensive the air ministry announced Thursday apparently designed to circumvent a possible Axis thrust against Malta or Axis attempts to strengthen the Libyan airbase.

The weight of the attack on Sicilian air bases was marked by a 10-hour raid Tuesday night when wave after wave of Wellington bombers swept in from the sea and blasted at the Catania airfield.

The news service said pilots reported many direct hits on runways and buildings and claimed numerous Axis aircraft had been destroyed on the ground.

Many Thanks For an Old Coat

NOGALES, Ariz.—(P)—British appreciation of American assistance was personified in a letter received here from Kathleen Collins, a 14-year-old London girl whose home was leveled by Nazi bombers.

The letter was addressed to Martha Matilda, Nogales high school girl, who several months ago inserted a note with her name and address in the sleeve of a coat donated to Bundles for Britain.

Addressed to "My dear Martha" the letter acknowledged receipt of the coat and added: "Most of us Londoners are off to a good start again this year and are favored to win the 1942 championship. They have not been defeated in the state, although they dropped games to three powerful college quintets in Texas in a pre-season tour. They held victories over Hendrix and Henderson State Teachers and over several independent teams.

N. L. R. It's Friday
In two games here Wednesday night Patmos defeated the Hope seniors 30 to 26 while the local juniors whipped Patmos juniors 12 to 8.

McCullough, star Hope center, did not play. Rogers was high night in the senior game with 12 followed by Mayno of Patmos with 11. In the junior contest Thomas of Hope scored 8 of his team's 12 points.

The bobcats will play the strong North Little Rock Wildcats in a conference contest here Friday night. Probable lineup includes Hope; Green and Jordan, forwards; McCullough, centers; Sims and Rogers, guards; North Little Rock; Selenbeck and Howard, forwards; Matthews center and Young and Baumann, guards.

Bill Brasher announced that the Bobcat Basketball court had been worked over and was in excellent shape. Seating arrangements also have been improved and will take care of a larger crowd.

Social Calendar

Thursday, January 22nd.

Miss Zuela Collier's class of the First Baptist Sunday school will have their monthly social meeting at the home of the teacher, 518 South Main street, 7:30 o'clock.

Both units of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet at the church Thursday at 4 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Choir practice for the members of the First Methodist church choir, the church, 7:30 o'clock.

Friday, January 23rd

The Young Peoples' Department of the First Methodist Sunday school will meet at the church at 7 o'clock for a hike to the high school for the basketball game.

Service prayer groups, composed of mothers of boys in the armed services, will meet at the home of Mrs. Edwin Dossett 120 West 16th street, 3 o'clock. A devotional will be brought by Mrs. Hugh Jones and Mrs. J. M. Duffie, who recently returned from Seward, Alaska, will discuss that country to the group.

Mrs. J. C. Carlton will be hostess to the Friday Music club at her home, 3:30 o'clock. Preceding the regular meeting, choral practice will begin at 2:30.

General Workers Conference Is Held at First Methodist Church

Members of the mens groups were hosts to the members of the General Workers Conference of the First Methodist church at a chili supper Wednesday evening in the church's recreational rooms. Covers were laid for 30.

During the meeting a business session was held with reports being made by the various committees.

Drive for Cancelled Postage Stamps Begins in Hope

The Daughters of the American Revolution are requesting that cancelled postage stamps be collected and given to members of the local chapter for shipment to London. Dye from the stamp is removed and sold for 37 cents per pound, the proceeds going to the support of beds in the Children's Branch of Queen's hospital, London.

Mrs. W. A. Tuggart of Pine Bluff, conservation chairman for the Arkansas Society, D. A. R., says that this project is sponsored by the National chairman at the suggestion of the President General. She reports that the last shipment of baled stamps containing 1,000 pounds was sold for $300—enough to support two hospital beds for one year. British ships carry the stamps without charge, and the D. A. R. is responsible for the collection and mailing.

Mrs. Gus Haynes, local chairman of the drive, urges that all public offices, business and industrial concerns, school children and individual citizens assist this project by saving canceled postage stamps left attached to the paper on the corner of the envelope.

Mrs. Gus Haynes, Mrs. F. R. Johnson, and Mrs. Terrell Cornelius will call for stamps when notified. Receptionals are to be placed at a downtown location for convenience in gathering stamps.

Mrs. Steve Carrigan and Miss Maggie Bell Have Bay View Club

Lovely spring blossoms in artistic containers decorated the home of Mrs. Steve Carrigan on Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Bay View Reading club.

Mrs. Carrigan was assisted by Miss Maggie Bell.

Mrs. Gus Haynes, president of the club, presided at the business session, and Miss Mamie Twitcheil presented the program for the afternoon. It was a continuation of the study on national affairs.

"Stalin's American Power" was discussed by Mrs. John S. Gibson, Sr.

After her talk she lead an open discussion on the subject. Miss Twitcheil's subject was "As the English See Us."

Various questions pertaining to the subjects were discussed by Mrs. W. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. A. Henry, and Mrs. Claud Agee.

During the social hour the hostess served a delightful dessert to the 16 members and the guests, Mrs. O. A. Graves, Mrs. R. T. White, Mrs. Stith Davenport, Mrs. Nora Carrigan, Miss Sue Jones, and Miss Mary Ruth McCorle.

Greene Matthews Nuptials Read At First Baptist Church

Miss Mary Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews, became the bride of John Stuart Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Greene, in a quiet ceremony Wednesday, January 21, 1942, at 6:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church. Reverend W. R. Hamilton, pastor, read the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

On each side of the alter were large bunches of spring flowers, and seven-tiered candelabra burned in the background. Mrs. Hendrie Spraggins was in charge of the organ music. Mendelsohn's Wedding March was used, for the entrance of the bride. During the ceremony "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" were softly played.

The bride wore a spring costume suit of Bouquet Pink wool. The jacket had self-bands of applique, fastened with rhinestone buttons. Her shoulder corsage was of sweet peas tied with chenille.

Miss Zilpha Keith, who was the bride's only attendant, wore a dress of nutria alpaca with brilliant clips at the neck and belt. Her corsage was of acaicia and cornflowers.

Mrs. Leroy Spates received the grooms as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip and upon their return will live in Hope, where Mr. Greene is employed by the Architect-Engineer office of Howard-Needles-Tammen and Bergendoff.

Large Bridge Party Is Given By Mrs. Pete Brown

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Pete Brown was hostess to a number of friends with a bridge party at her home. She effectively used spring flowers to decorate the card rooms where four tables were arranged for contract.

Playing resulted in Mrs. Paul Jones receiving the high score gift, Mrs. G. Nash, the second high, and Mrs. Raymond Hillis, the traveling prize.

Following the games an ice course served to the following guests:

Mrs. Hansel Herring, Mrs. Raymond Hillis, and Mrs. Corley Tedder of Prescott. Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Dillard Breeding, Mrs. R. C. Lurson, Mrs. Wallace Cook, Mrs. C. D. # A Survey of OCD Activity

Washington Heatedly Aids Pros, Cons About LaGuardia

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Pros and cons concerning the success of the Civilian Defense Program under Director LaGuardia have kept the air circulating heatedly in Washington for weeks.

The woods are full of opinions on whether it's a success. The capital, however, often mistakes a political sideshow for the main attraction. The rumors of LaGuardia's alleged arguments with the President's wife, congressional potshots at the Little Flower and the attendant cracks and counter-cracks have kept Washington thrilled.

That's unimportant. Washington is only one town. This civilian defense program, in this time of war for existence, admittedly should be fully organized and in full blast all over the country.

Is it?

There's one certain way to find out. Check the home town newspapers of America. They mirror completely the activities of the people in each town. If civilian defense in Podunk is engrossing the best efforts of the people, you can bet your shirt that the Podunk Clarion is full of the doings of its people in behalf of civilian defense.

To get the real lowdown on this civilian defense business, its success or failure, I grabbed an armful of papers

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of blood vessels. They help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When you are tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent nocturnal passages are annoying and bring nothing but trouble. There's something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disease of the kidney function permits passage of urine to the bladder, it may also cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help you flush 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poison from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
